2021- 2022 Household Income/Financial Resources Table - Florida

AAA considers ALL household members and their income. To figure out your household size, add all the people you live with together, this is your household size. Now add ALL the annual earnings (before tax) for everyone in the household, this is your total annual income. Use these two numbers to look at the income chart below for your household size and income.

Note: Any business losses will be adjusted to zero and the total income will be adjusted accordingly to determine household eligibility.

| Household size | Maximum Household Income for an AAA Scholarship Award | Maximum Household Income for a Family Empowerment Scholarship |
|-----------------------------|---|---|
| 1 | $33,488 | $38,640 |
| 2 | $45,292 | $52,260 |
| 3 | $57,096 | $65,880 |
| 4 | $68,900 | $79,500 |
| Each additional person add: | $11,804 | $13,620 |

The Florida Department of Education administers the Family Empowerment Scholarship ("FES"). If household income is above the maximum for an AAA Scholarship Award but at or below the maximum for FES, your information will be sent to the Florida Department of Education to determine eligibility for FES. In addition to the household income requirement, eligibility for FES requires a Florida student to be entering Kindergarten or, if entering a higher grade, to have been (or have a sibling who was) enrolled in a public school during the previous school year.

This application is the ONLY chance you have to explain your household situation. Please use additional paper if needed to give us ALL needed information to determine your eligibility. All information must be disclosed NOW. Failure to fully document and complete this application WILL result in your application being denied. You will not be able to provide additional information after processing to change the decision of eligibility made based on the original application and documentation.
